Meet Our Speakers

Chris Dove, Locke Lord LLP - has been practicing in the areas of appellate and business litigation for over 19 years. He is Board Certified in Civil Appellate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and has solid experience before the Texas Supreme Court, Texas Courts of Appeal, and U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth and Federal Circuits. Chris has argued 30 appeals and has been counsel in many more, focusing on appeals in commercial and business litigation across several industries.

Kenneth Harder, Jackson Lewis PC – is a principal at the Houston Office of Jackson Lewis PC and is TBLS certified in Immigration and Nationality Law. He has contributed numerous articles on immigration and nationality law to legal journals and business publications and is a frequent speaker at national and international immigration law conferences. In 2023, he was recognized as a “Top 10 Trailblazing Texas Immigration Lawyer” by Business Today.

Chase Hardy, Griffin Purnell LLC – is a trial attorney at Griffin Purnell LLC, in San Antonio, TX and practices in the areas of mass tort, complex commercial litigation, product liability, premise liability, toxic tort defense, and Plaintiff's litigation. He earned his JD from Baylor University School of Law and received his provisional license at age 23 and, by age 25, he was first-chair in civil trials.

Michael Harrison, Shook Hardy & Bacon LLP – is a civil rights trial attorney heading up his firm's civil rights and racial justice pro bono efforts. Michael was a chief assistant district attorney of the Harris County District Attorney's Office where he served as a Civil Rights Division prosecutor, investigating and prosecuting law enforcement excessive-force and corruption cases. He is an adjunct professor of law at the Thurgood Marshall School of Law.

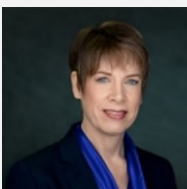

Brian S. Humphrey, II, Humphrey Law PC – is board certified in Civil Appellate Law by TBLS and was named to the Texas Super Lawyers Texas Rising Stars for five consecutive years. He practices in the areas of personal injury law, complex business litigation, and appellate law. He frequently speaks on issues related to personal injury and civil litigation and, along with colleague Jay Jackson, is co-author of a running Texas Supreme Court Update.

Wesley Lotz, Lotz Law Firm PLLC - is a trial lawyer who represents clients in business litigation and arbitration. Over the course of his career, Wes has litigated claims for breach of contract, fraud, fiduciary duty, theft of trade secrets, non-compete, partnership disputes, deceptive trade practices, patent, trademark, and copyright infringement, negligence, employment discrimination, securities litigation, shareholder disputes, industrial accidents, personal injury litigation, and financial disputes.

Charles Newton, Charles Newton & Associates – represents debtors whose rights gained in filing bankruptcy have been violated. While he handles litigation issues in the United States Bankruptcy Courts across Texas, his primary emphasis is prosecuting automatic stay and discharge injunction violations.

Donna Thomisee, Lugenbuhl, Wheaton, Peck, Rankin & Hubbard - has focused primarily on the defense of personal injury/commercial claims in diverse industries such as auto/trucking, premises and construction. She is also skilled at unraveling all types of complicated insurance coverage claims. She also serves as Chairman of the Board for LINC Ministries Inc, a nonprofit that works to help empower local ministry leaders in multiple cities to help their communities thrive.
